Step 1 Individual or Group?

Decide which type of membership works best for you, individual or group. APWA offers a number of membership categories based on your organization's strategic interests and objectives. Descriptions of each type of membership may be found at www.apwa.net/membership. (Note that all APWA members residing in Canada are also members of the Canadian Public Works Association.)

Questions? Contact a membership specialist at 800-848-APWA or membership@apwa.net.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP (Choose either individual or group membership, then go to Step 2)

Individual membership is available to any official or employee of a governmental agency, manufacturer, supplier, contractor, or consulting firm that is actively engaged in the field of public works.

(For information about using the half-price offer to start a new group or add members to an existing group, call 800-848-2792 or e-mail membership@apwa.net.)

GROUP MEMBERSHIP (Choose one of the three types of group membership, then go to Step 2)

Groups will receive one consolidated renewal notice with a member roster attached. Public Agency, Corporate, and One-call groups may add or drop members from the roster throughout the year, if necessary. Additional members can be added for $113 US/$120 CN each. Use the Member Information section in Step 5 to provide names and contact information for people to be on the group roster.

PUBLIC AGENCY GROUP MEMBERSHIP

enter total

Available to any federal, provincial, state, local or other public agency concerned with public works. The number of individual memberships and the annual fee for an agency are based on the population served by the agency. When joining as an agency, each member saves $24 US ($25 CN) on annual membership dues. Select the appropriate population category:

- State or Provincial Agencies—Number of rostered members and annual dues for the group would be determined using the "Population Served" column representing 10% of total state population.
- County Agencies—Number of rostered members and annual dues for the group would be determined using the "Population Served" column representing 50% of total county population.
- Special Districts—Number of rostered members and annual dues for the group would be determined using the "Population Served" column representing 20% of total district population.
- All others—Refer to column representing total population served by the agency.

Step 2

Optional Memberships

APWA also manages several smaller public works oriented organizations and forums. Complete information about these groups is available at <http://www.apwa.net/About/SIG/>. The only special interest group which charges its own membership dues is PWHS. Please complete this section if you would also like to join PWHS and note in Step 5 to which person this membership should apply.

OPTIONAL MEMBERSHIPS (select any optional memberships, then go to Step 3)

PUBLIC WORKS HISTORICAL SOCIETY (PWHS) is dedicated to improving the public's awareness and appreciation of public works throughout history. Public Works Historical Society Membership $35 US/$37 CN each	enter total

Step 3

Local Chapter Dues

There are 64 APWA and CPWA chapters in North America, and 22 have local chapter dues in addition to national membership dues. The national headquarters handles the collection of those local chapter dues. Local chapter dues (where applicable) are mandatory and must be paid in full to maintain active membership status. For a complete list of chapters visit www.apwa.net/chapters.

Step 4

Payment (Complete payment information then go to Step 5)

Send entire completed application and payment information. Membership is for one year and will begin upon receipt of dues payment. Purchase orders are acceptable, but members will not receive benefits until receipt of payment.

APWA membership dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deductible as an ordinary business expense, subject to IRS limits. APWA does not designate the use of membership dues for lobbying or advocacy efforts; however, eight percent (8%) of our total operating budget is allocated towards advocacy-related programs, including staff salaries. Please consult your tax professional with regards to eligible ordinary business expenses.
